

AMERICAN COMMUNITY SURVEY FUTURE DATA RELEASES AND PRODUCTS

2000-2001 American Community Survey CD-ROM* : provides 2000-2001 change profiles for areas of 1 million or more population and over 700 tables for 2001 for the country, 50 states, Washington, DC, and areas of 250,000 or more population; Public Use Microdata Sample (PUMS) files are also included.	Summer 2003
2002 American Community Survey* : provides 2001 to 2002 change profiles for the country, 50 states, Washington, DC, and areas of 1 million or more population and single-year profiles for 2002 for areas of 250,000 or more population on the ACS Web site; plus over 100 core tables for areas of 250,000 or more population on American FactFinder.	September 2003
2002 American Community Survey* : provides over 600 additional tables, including race-iterated tables, for the country, 50 states, Washington, DC, and areas of 250,000 or more population on American FactFinder.	Fall 2003
2002 American Community Survey* : provides the state-level Public Use Microdata Sample (PUMS) files on the ACS Web site.	Winter 2004

American Community Survey data, for a sample of over 700,000 households, previously released as the Census 2000 Supplementary Survey and 2001 Supplementary Survey are included in the data releases mentioned above. Data for the 31 American Community Survey Test Sites also were included.*

Geographic areas of 250,000 or greater population number more than 600 unique entities (see "Accuracy of the Data" in the Advanced Methodology section of the American Community Survey Web site for limitations to areas published).*

Visit the American Community Survey Web site <www.census.gov/acs/www>
The American FactFinder Web site: <<http://factfinder.census.gov>>
Call 1-888-456-7215

AMERICAN COMMUNITY SURVEY PUBLISHED DATA AND PRODUCTS

2000 American Community Survey*: provides over 100 core tables and more than 600 additional tables, including race-iterated tables, for the country, 50 states, Washington, DC, and areas of 250,000 or more population on American FactFinder; plus single-year profiles and Public Use Microdata Sample (PUMS) files on the ACS Web site. Core tables are the basic population and housing tables which are used to prepare site profiles.	Spring 2002 (completed)
2001 American Community Survey*: provides 2000 to 2001 change profiles for the country, 50 states, Washington, DC, and areas of 1 million or more population; single-year profiles for 2001 for areas of 250,000 or more population on the ACS Web site; plus over 100 core tables for areas of 250,000 or more on American FactFinder.	November 2002 (completed)
2001 American Community Survey*: provides more than 600 additional tables, including race-iterated tables, for the country, 50 states, Washington, DC, and areas of 250,000 or more population on American FactFinder, plus the Public Use Microdata Sample (PUMS) files on the ACS Web site.	February 2003 (completed)

American Community Survey data, for a sample of over 700,000 households, previously released as the Census 2000 Supplementary Survey and 2001 Supplementary Survey are included in the data releases mentioned above. Data for the 31 American Community Survey Test Sites also were included.*

Geographic areas of 250,000 or greater population number more than 600 unique entities (see "Accuracy of the Data" in the Advanced Methodology section of the American Community Survey Web site for limitations to areas published).*

Visit the American Community Survey Web site <www.census.gov/acs/www>
The American FactFinder Web site: <<http://factfinder.census.gov>>
Call 1-888-456-7215